

INTERNATIONAL SERVICES

FUELING YOUR COMPANY'S INTERNATIONAL GROWTH STRATEGY

Today, more individuals and businesses are entering the international marketplace in hopes of financially benefiting from expanded opportunities—and reductions in costs and taxes.

Windham Brannon's international tax group assists clients with cross-border transactions, residency issues, and the various complications of forming or liquidating foreign entities. We have extensive experience in advising foreign-owned businesses with expanding or existing U.S. business activities. In addition, we help clients strategize their efforts globally to achieve their overall business goals both in a tax-efficient manner and in compliance with the rules and regulations of U.S. and global tax authorities.

Windham Brannon is uniquely qualified to provide these international tax services. As a member of AGN International, a worldwide association of separate and independent accounting and advisory firms, we have access to leading tax and accounting experts around the globe.

And our Atlanta-based team communicates in English, as well as most European, Central and South American, and Asian languages. We're poised to help our clients navigate business worldwide.
